

WRITE IT

1895 this morning, and may it be the most prosperous year of your life, its our hearty wish to all of our friends and patrons. If there is anything needed to complete your toilet for either afternoon or evening dress we'll be here until noon to supply it. Correct fashions in CLOTHES, SHIRTS, COLLARS, CUFFS, GLOVES, TIES, and other haberdashery.

ROBINSON, CHERY & CO.,
Clothes, Furnishings, Hats,
Twelfth and F Sts.

Geo. W. Spier,
210 NINTH STREET,
Just above the corner

Geo. C. BERGLING

IMPORTING TAILOR

1215 F St. N. W.

SHOES

That wear well,
That cost little,
That are made well—

Our "REGENT,"

Cork Soles.

For men, $3 pair. Twice as good as many you'll get for that money.

EDMONSTON'S,

1334 F St. N. W.

COAL

—WILLIAM MITCHELL, 1305
Fourteenth street northwest
Branch office and yard, 2100 D street northwest.

$4 Gas Heating

—applied for heating an "old" room—a safe chimney—or a bathroom, which can be very warm and comfortable.

Gas Radiators, $10.

—More efficient than the stoves and burners, and heat. Taylor's Fireplace Heaters, $25 up.

No charge for keeping all stoves in repair for the first year.

Gas Stoves, Tubing, etc. fit up.

Gas Appliance Exchange,

1428 N. Y. Ave.

LABOR UNIONS

TAKE NOTICE

That the Union Label is used on all work done by the Trades Union and Labor Assembly.

STORMONT & JACKSON,

PRINTERS,
322 12 St. N. E. Five doors below F St.

CHICKERING & SON'S

PIANOS,

MASON & HAMLIN'S

ORGANS,

WASHBURN

Mandolins and Guitars,

STEWART

BANJOS,

Sheet Music and Music Books.

MODERATE PRICES.

EASY TERMS.

John F. Ellis & Co.,

937 PA. AVE. N. W.

Miss Maria Parloa

Strongly Recommends
the use of

Liebig COMPANY'S

Extract of Beef

And she has written a

COOK BOOK,

which will be sent free
on application to

Leitch & Co., 214 Place, New York.

COAL

YOU DID MENTION IT, AND I will benefit them and cheap
of W. MITCHELL & CO.,
2100 D St. N. W., depot at 1305

FUNERAL EXPENSES REDUCED.

S. H. HINES,

Undertaker and Embalmer, Main Office, 423
C Street northwest. Branch office, 110 Fourteenth street northwest. Twenty years experience in the business, and first-class work guaranteed. Arrangements can be made with me for funerals in any part of the United States.
No. 1 Varied Coffin, without glass.....$15.00
No. 2 Varied Coffin, with glass.....25.00
No. 3 Varied Coffin, with glass.....35.00
No. 4 Varied Coffin, with glass.....45.00
No. 5 Varied Coffin, with glass.....55.00
No. 6 Varied Coffin, with glass.....65.00
No. 7 Varied Coffin, with glass.....75.00
No. 8 Varied Coffin, with glass.....85.00
No. 9 Varied Coffin, with glass.....95.00
No. 10 Varied Coffin, with glass.....105.00
Metallic caskets furnished in proportion when desired. It will cost you nothing to investigate our prices.

JAMES N. SMALL,

SIGNS,
1209 E Street Northwest,
Washington, D. C.

What Is More Attractive

Than a pretty face with a fresh, bright complexion? For it is

POZZONI'S POWDER.

DOINGS OF THE COMMISSIONERS

Contract for Removal and Disposal of District Garbage.

IT MUST BE COMPLIED WITH

Arguments for and Against East
Washington Belt Line R. R.

Attorney Pugh Makes Reply to Policeman
McCourt's Charges—Auditor Feltz Explains Payment in Reimbursement for Loss of Albert Gleason's Mules—Gen. Ordway's Complaint—Dismissals, Promotions, Etc.

The Commissioners have notified President Warfield of the Fidelity and Deposit Company, surety for the National Sanitary Company, that strict compliance with the garbage contract must be made, even if unusual means have to be resorted to; that there is nothing in the condition of the river to render compliance impossible, and that unless removal of the garbage and dead animals shall begin on the 21st of January, at 9 o'clock a. m., with a sufficient number of scows or other vessels to accomplish the same speedily, the District will undertake the work at the expense of the surety. An answer is required by the hour and date designated.

The garbage question is ever a living issue with the District government. The coming spring of the seasons brings to the front and leave behind the garbage odor in a more or less intensified form.

Its latest phase was produced by the freeze, and the question has arisen as to the disposal of refuse, including sundry dead animals at the G street wharf.

S. B. Bayly, Jr., referred to Health Officer Woodward yesterday, and advised upon a collection of refuse, including sundry dead animals at the G street wharf.

Mr. Bayly was at the District building yesterday and had an interview with the board. He called the attention of the board to a condition that existed in February last, when 700 tons of garbage lay for a month or more on the river bank, and which finally became so offensive that the odors reached the District building. He said there is no help for existing conditions, unless there can be a plan devised that will overcome the difficulties presented by the ice king. He says it is the same old difficulty that confronts the District, and so far as he can see, there is nothing to do but to "wait for a thaw."

Harbor Master Sutton was asked yesterday whether or not the condition of the river is such as to prevent the boats from running, and he replied that the ferry boats, oyster boats, and other craft are running as usual. He and Health Officer Woodward had been conferring with the Commissioners concerning the garbage.

REPORTS OF THE WHARF.

The citizens of East Washington are not a unit on the proposed Belt Line Railway for that section. A petition was filed yesterday, signed by Robert N. Harper, Dr. Gregg Curtis, August Burdette, H. L. Gibson, of United States Naval Hospital, and about one dozen others, representing large property holdings, urging prompt passage of the bill incorporating the road. The paper is worded briefly, and no argument used except as to the general advantages to be conferred.

Another paper, more numerous signed, was also placed on file, in which those interested enter a vigorous protest against the construction of the road.

It is signed by H. E. McCauley and about forty others, "all bona fide property owners" on Third street, who allege that they will be materially injured by the proposed double tracks on that thoroughfare and that public convenience will not be increased. The street is so narrow, they say, being but thirty-two feet wide, that the value of property will be materially depreciated by the construction of a railway.

house, who was sentenced for ninety days and whose sentence expires January 7, has

AGAIN APPEALED FOR PARDON.

He says his family is in need, and that if the Commissioners will give him a pardon as a New Year's gift he will be a better man.

It has been already decided that the power of pardon in his case lies with the President, and it is therefore not now possible for the New Year's gift to materialize.

Dismissals, promotions, and appointments were made in the fire department yesterday as follows:

Private T. P. Killigan was removed from the force to take effect at once.

C. Frader, assistant foreman, promoted to foreman.

E. Dickson, assistant hostler, promoted to hostler.

C. Frader, J. A. Lewis, J. A. Noone, F. A. Smith, J. C. Henderson, W. V. Yeatman, and G. W. Colvin were appointed privates.

Promotions and appointments to take effect January 1, 1895.

The Commissioners yesterday addressed a letter to Attorney General Olney asking for the immediate release of Elliott Smith, who was committed on the 17th instant to the workhouse of the Washington Asylum for a period of sixty days. The pardon is requested to take effect at once in order that the woman's services may be had as nurse in the smallpox hospital, for which there is urgent need.

The work of cleaning the unpaved streets has, by order of the Commissioners, been discontinued until such time in the spring as it may be necessary to resume same.

SIX POLICEMEN APPOINTED.

Private Koppen Dismissed and Others Fined Heavily by the Commissioners.

The police department was given a lively shaking up by the Commissioners yesterday during their session, which was devoted largely to police matters, and several hundred cases were disposed of. In addition six citizens received an official New Year's gift in the shape of appointments on the force.

The lucky six who will commence the year 1895 as "dandy coppers" and baton twirlers are: John H. Arnold, Charles Ward, George G. Richards, Clement N. Dairymple, John W. Giles, and E. M. Jett.

Private W. F. Koppen, of the Fourth precinct, tried December 5, 1894, and sentenced to six months of gross neglect of duty, was removed from the force, to take effect at once.

Drive G. A. Schrader, Fourth precinct, for same offense and tried same day, was fined $50 and given warning that further offense of that character would result in his dismissal.

Private W. B. Richards, tried December 12, 1894, for same offense, was found guilty except as to the word "gross," was fined $5.

The charges against Private W. J. Settle, for alleged violation of paragraph 96 of the manual, were dismissed.

The charges against Private Elijah Cleveland, tried for neglect of duty, were ordered to be dismissed, but the officers were cautioned to be more careful in future to respond to whistles blown on his beat while he is on duty.

Private James W. Arnold, tried December 12, for gross neglect of duty, and found guilty, except as to the word "gross," was fined $5.

Privates Bauman and C. P. Coffin, tried December 13, 1894, for gross neglect of duty, and sentenced to six months of gross neglect of duty, were removed from the force.

J. F. Chismore has been appointed an additional private on the police force for services at the Hotel Raleigh, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Twelfth street northwest.

CAPT. WRIGHT RIVES SUES.

He Wants His Interest in the Old Globe Printing Office Property.

Capt. Wright Rives yesterday sued his brother, Franklin Rives, of the Pension Bureau, and others, to secure an accounting and for the sale of the Globe Printing Office property, at 329 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

The plaintiff asserts that he owns the property jointly with his brother, that he purchased the interest of his sister in 1881 and now owns the largest share.

He has frequently urged that all the owners join in a sale, but some one has always refused. He says his brother has put furniture and other things on the property. One is to secure Judge Lambert Tree, of Chicago, $12,000.

He says that he received none of the money obtained by the sale of the property, and that his brother and others have, in addition to these amounts, received the rent, amounting to $2,400 a year, for some time past, and have not paid him any part thereof.

He wants a partition or sale and distribution of proceeds. He also asks that Judge Tree's claim against his sister be paid out of the interest of the other owners. If that should not prove to be sufficient, he asks that his share be not made liable for the balance of the property, but that the value of a sale under the trust deeds is the final prayer in the bill.

PROMOTERS POCKET PROFITS.

Alleged Scheme to Benefit Life Savers Like 7 to Be Prohibited.

Lieut. Frank H. Newcomb, of the United States Revenue Cutter Service, and assistant inspector of the first and second life-saving districts, acting under instructions of General Superintendent Kimball, of the Life-Saving Service, have investigated and made a report on a scheme having for its declared object the benefit of the life savers along the Atlantic coast.

The plan has resulted in the publication of a "Historical Souvenir of the Life Saving Service of the United States," which, without its profits, would be sold at 25 cents a copy. Several life saving stations along the coast, it is alleged that less than 25 per cent. of the amounts paid by sympathetic subscribers will ever reach the life savers themselves, and the remaining 75 per cent. of the proceeds goes into the pockets of the promoters.

The whole scheme is condemned by the life saving service, and it is proposed that the bill be taken to prevent any one connected with the service from having anything further to do with this matter.

BLEW OUT THE GAS.

Narrow Escape of a West Virginian from Death in a H. N.

It is thought Paul J. Flynn, of Bayard county, W. Va., retired to his room in the Dealey's hotel and blew out the gas. This morning he was discovered nearly asphyxiated, and was at once removed to the Emergency Hospital. Prompt treatment saved his life.

Flynn has been in the city about a week and has been drinking deeply, it is said. At midnight, when he retired, he left a call for 8 o'clock. When the bellboy obeyed the order of the gas was noticed, and the door was broken open. Flynn was lying on the bed in a stupor, and no time was lost in giving him fresh air.

No cause for suicide is known, and the favorite blow-out-the-gas theory is held in his case.

Three Wills and a Petition.—The will of Ann F. Washington, made November 3, 1894, given to her friend, Emily Young, all her estate except $10 to each of her cousins, Robert Nelson and George Nelson. Thomas Frader, executor.

The late Daniel Joseph Sexton in his will, dated May 4, 1893 and died yesterday, leaves all his property to his widow, Anna M. Sexton. She is appointed executrix with relative bond and made guardian of their son Lindsay.

The will of the late Mary Ellen Shaw, of Georgetown, made April 26, 1888, leaves to her daughter, Virginia, the residue of her life insurance after debts and expenses are paid, and her furniture to her daughters, Virginia, Mary A., and Susan P. In equal shares. Should one of them die or marry the property is to go to the others. Virginia is made executrix.

The petition for probate of the will of the late Allen Wall filed yesterday by his wife and son as executors shows that he left $2,000 in bonds and $500 in cash and furniture in addition to his residence. He left no debts.

Death of Mrs. Hilgard.—Mrs. Katherine Hilgard died at the Bancroft on Sunday after a brief illness. She was the widow of the late Prof. Julius E. Hilgard, of the United States Geographical Society, who was a well known scientific circles of this country and Europe.

WASH. B. WILLIAMS, FURNITURE.

Cor. 7th and D Sts. N. W.

Wishing You a Happy

And Prosperous

NEW YEAR.

They Ask for a Receiver for the Milton

Plats and a Sale

The Milton Plats, on H street between

Seventeenth and Eighteenth, are the subject of a suit filed yesterday by two grandsons of the late W. W. Corcoran. The ground is lots

10 and 11, in a sub-division and original lot

8, in square 127.

The complainants are Huston Hill, seventeen years old, and William Corcoran Hill, fourteen. They are represented by William A. Gordon, an next friend who is closely related to them. The defendants are George R.
Hill, Charles Philip Hill, Eugene Hill Denney, and a number of other heirs of the late Mr. Corcoran. Twenty exhibits are filed with the bill. They are copies of deeds of trust, releases and other papers executed in transactions in which the property was involved.

It is alleged in the bill that Mr. Corcoran gave the property to Martha E. Hill and later it was transferred to Charles R. Hill, who on July 2, 1873, conveyed it to Philip Phillips in trust for Fanny E. Hill, mother of the plaintiffs. Mrs. Hill has had control of the property for a number of years, and in July, 1884, borrowed $15,000 to improve it. A deed of trust was given to secure the loan. This loan was repaid several years later by another loan of $25,000 and this again by one for $27,500, and finally on March 30, 1893, the amount of the loan had reached $38,000, to run five years at 6 per cent. Under this deed of trust the mother and her children were to have the property until the debt was paid, on November 13 last to Anna S. Hill for $23,000.

These loans and deeds of trust from the mother to the children, it is alleged, were made solely for the purpose of enabling the mother to sell the property and to divide the sale profit to be made. The property is assessed at $71,700 and it is asserted is worth very much more than the $39,000 paid for it.
It is claimed that George R. Hill, Charles Philip Hill, and Eugene Hill Denney be judicially ascertained, that a receiver be appointed during the pendency of this suit, to take charge of the property, and to divide the same among the children, and the proceeds divided as the court may direct.

NEW PRACTICAL CHARITY.

Legion of Loyal Women Will Mend Clothing Contributed for the Poor.

The Legion of Loyal Women are undertaking a new practical charity. At their meeting Saturday evening they decided to establish at their home, No. 419 Tenth street, a bureau where they would start at once the work of making over and mending all sorts of clothing, shoes and bedding contributed by the citizens.

All clean garments, bedding and remnants of dress material and house linen brought in, old shoes and cotton and woolen clothing of all kinds can be used.

Mrs. Clara Barton and her corps of Red Cross workers have promised their assistance in this effort which has proved so successful in their relief work. By this plan the poor do much of the work themselves in repairing and refitting the clothing contributed for them.

MEANT TO MURDER LITTLELL.

Another Patent Attorney Who Thinks Swindle and Murder Him

J. H. Littlell, a patent attorney having an office in the Patent Building, is the latest to believe that he was marked for slaughter by Eugene L. Swingle, the Ohio crank now in custody.

Mr. Littlell did some business for the crank fellow, who imagines he is an inventor, and by certain signs is convinced that he is the man whom Swingle intended to murder.

Swingle is still locked up in the New Jersey avenue station, but he will be sent to St.
Elizabeth's hospital, where he will be kept until he makes an effort to transport Swingle back to his home in Dillon, Muskegon county, Ohio. The fellow was here about eighteen months ago, and Inspector Hollibaugh, at the time sent him home.

TO FORM BATTAL RIGHTS LEAGUES.

Hon. J. C. Manning, of Montgomery, Ala., has received communications from people throughout the South urging him to call together representatives from all of the Southeast States for the purpose of organizing ballot rights leagues. Mr. Manning will soon issue a call for a conference of those favoring the cause to meet at New Orleans, La., January 13 and 14, 1895.

Grand Jury Action.—The grand jury yesterday wound up the year with a big list of indictments. True bills were returned against J. Benjamin Van Horn, alias J. Adams, alias
C. Cook, alias J. Wilson, embezzlement;
Palmer P. Babcock and Frederick J. Owens,
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T. Farrar,
alias James Holloman, alias Thomas Lacey;
Milton W. Heflin, embezzlement; Rudolph
Moun, larceny; Frederick T. Miller, setting
up a gaming table; William Sanders, alias
Harley Sanders, alias; William H. Travers,
P. Clark, Robert O. Culien, false pretenses;
J. R. Fawcett, alias; James T